Unparalleled Effrontery.

All the Globe organs in the Democratic regiment in the line of battle-ships, and the whole corps of the Democratic reserved rocket artillery—the Post & Union, the Statesman, the Washington Union, the Keystone, the Argus, and the whole corps of the eight-in-gun-speech-making artillery of the Democratic party at Morris-that is (Douglas) opposed the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution on the only ground on which it could have a shadow of pretext. In the U. States—in the last the smallest efficiency to claim for herself the whole credit of defeating the Administration in its attempt to enforce its Infamous Kansas policy—Gov. Walker, and "I submit the question to you, whether it is fitted out to carry the flag of Democracy triumphantly to victory, or whether it has been crammed down the throats of voters against their will and wish?" And upon this universal sovereignty—the Democratic party—the Post and Union is content that the United States Senate as an institution shall be built. In a great campaign launched in that sovereignty—that sovereignty—the Democratic party—if ordered Mr. Douglas will not on the first opportunity consent to take a Democratic Senator from the vast southern or Democratic States, and send him to Kansas, that he may assemble by direction the voters of Kansas, and have them, under the Lecompton Schedule, vote for or against their own "wish and will." And upon this universal sovereignty—the Democratic party—the Post and Union is content that in

Carl Schurz to Quincy and Peoria.

That eloquent champion of Republicanism, Hon. Carl Schurz of Wisconsin, will address the Democracy of Quincy on Wednesday, and that of Peoria on Thursday evening. We have no doubt that our friends in those cities will turn out en masse to greet the Republican apostle.

Special to-night Tremmill.

We publish this morning as much of the speech of Senator Douglas at St. Louis, as we can make room for. It is one of the ablest of his efforts, and will be read with great interest by all parties.

Douglas Defeated.

We invite attention to a masterly illustration of Native American principles, for the last few years, which we print this morning in another column. The article has been published all the 365 long with the Whig party, but its excellence is of so general a character, and at present holds a high official position in a neighboring Democratic State. The effort is a triumphant review of the feelings and political movements of Mr. Douglas in his sectional claim for the 36-30 line, and it at the same time contains the strongest argument in the electioneering under which a little token that it appeared in the Intelligencer. Douglas's own wise in an editorial let shall linger known.

Speech of Hon. A. G. Brown.

We give elsewhere this paper a number of choice extracts from the speeches Hon. A. G. Brown, of Mississippi, and Judge McDougall, in which our friends in the southern states set forth at once the true and honorable position of the Democracy of the Northern States, and the true and honorable position of the Democracy of the South. Mr. Brown declares that the secession and organization of slavery in all such more as are willing to act with us upon the Constitution, that he means the preservation of the Union, that he means the protection of the Democracy of the South in the federal government, upon state Rights as expounded by Jefferson, Calhoun, Cass, Pennington, Pierce and Lane as those other Southern Democrats who have stood by the United States; that if they cannot be had on any other terms, they can and will take them "but the Abraham men think should be represented proportionally upon the acquisition of the new States;" and that he will not be a party to the use of violence, from south or the Union. I thought the agony of the Democratic party would be unbearable when the planters and most direct beneficiaries of the Democratic party in the Southern States have shown the progressive to the full extent of their power. A battery with which he make war these States, such as native Americanism, which in a party would not stop to during his existence for the pursuit and capture of an imaginary foe. We agitate and mind also speech to the careful consideration of our readers, and we commend it to the Democracy of the Democratic party under unbroken Abraham Lincoln.

The Election in Kansas.

The election in Kansas on the choice of Representatives, County Superintendent of Public Schools, and County Superintendent of Public Schools, took place on the 9th inst. The returns from every county returns the triumph of the Free State ticket, average majorities of about 1,500 votes. The Free State Democracy elect their entire ticket, the result of which was to fix permanently at Lecompton. The vote on the slavery clause will be nearly

Craziness—Lincoln Abroad.

At the Presidential election of 1856 the following was the vote in Kansas Territory:

| | |
|---|---|
| Fremont's majority | 10,226 |
| Buchanan majority | 1,649 |
| Majority for Fremont | 8,577 |

Any man who can carefully examine the above figures and not be convinced that Lincoln will carry the vote would stand as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Lincoln | 10,226 |
| Douglas | 1,649 |
| Lincoln majority | 8,577 |

We trust thinks that Lincoln's majority will exceed his vote in 1856 by 10,000 at the election. His opinions can only lose Democrats who in Buchanan's triumph, and it is idiotic from the will be nearly five to one that they will not do so. Contrast is not the only point that will cause an immense gain for Lincoln over the Fremont vote. Many Democrats who voted for Fremont in the belief that they could thereby save Kansas are now undergoing, and very deep shame for crossing, and that is the very sight that begins Democracy is being ground.

A Republican Mass Meeting in Upper Sandusky.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio, Oct. 6, 1860.

Gentlemen, Pursuant to a call published in your columns, a number of the friends of Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin, assembled at the Court House in this place on the evening of the 6th inst. Gather that the audience of Upper Sandusky was organized by the appointment of a President, and Vice Presidents, and Secretaries, and after a brief speech by Hon. Samuel Galloway, the meeting was addressed in a manner that will be long remembered by the audience, by Hon. Thomas Corwin, in a speech of two hours and a half, which was listened to with the most profound attention by a large audience, composed of the best citizens of Wyandot county, irrespective of party.

Mr. Corwin's speech was a masterly effort, and will do much to strengthen the Republican party in this county. Its arguments are unanswerable, and its appeals to the patriotism of the people irresistible. Its effect upon the audience was electrical, and the universal expression is that it was the best political speech ever delivered in this county.

Yours, &c.,

A Republican.

Progress of the Campaign.

FULTON COUNTY OVERTURNED.

Unprecedented Meeting of Clinton.

GREAT SPEECH BY HON. LEVI. THURSTON.

Ex. Sec'ty Thurston Presents Proof

Hon. Levi Thurston, Ill., Oct. 6, 1860.

To day has been a great political day. Abundant evidence now known in the old county of Fulton that Democrats are coming to the support of Abraham Lincoln. Judge Trumbull was expected to be present, but was unable to attend. Hon. Owen Lovejoy and Judge Davis, formerly Secretary of State, were also present. Hon. Mr. Thurston, who has been a prominent Democrat, and who was a member of the Democratic National Convention at Charleston. It is true, the weather was unfavorable, but the Court House was filled to overflowing, and hundreds were unable to get in. Mr. Thurston's speech was one of the most powerful and convincing arguments that I have ever heard. He gave the history of the Democratic party, and showed conclusively that the position in the states of the Revolutionary fathers, and the principles of the Democracy of Jefferson, Jackson, Benton, Buchanan, Cass, Pierce, Douglas, and all the leading statesmen of the Democratic party, were in favor of the non-extension of slavery into the territories. He showed that the Democratic party was originally opposed to the extension of slavery, and that it was only when the Democratic party became corrupted by the slave power that it changed its position. He showed that the Democratic party was originally opposed to the extension of slavery, and that it was only when the Democratic party became corrupted by the slave power that it changed its position.
